Feast of Pentecost May 20th at St. Joseph's. International Mass, 11:00AM. Where all languages proclaim the good news of Christ, together in the Holy Spirit. National dress welcome. Represent your heritage. We hope to fly the flags of our many nations in the church. If you have a flag to lend please drop it off at the presbytery by Friday, 18th May with your name and phone number clipped on.

International Buffet, 12Noon at the School Hall. Where good food and good company feed our bodies and spirits. Bring a national dish to help make up our community table. If possible sign-up early on the sheets at the back of the church (on the notice board) with the type of dish you can bring so we can plan for space and variety. Dishes can be brought into the school hall before Mass begins. Each item should come with a serving utensil and a table card to let everyone know the name of the dish, its ingredients and perhaps some description of things like, spicy, vegetarian, vegan, etc.
