PLEASE NOTE: If you are a volunteer with any parish group that works with under 18's or vulnerable adults, visiting the sick and housebound, taking communion to the sick/housebound/nursing home with any group here at St. Joseph's it is mandatory that you have a DBS in order to proceed at any volunteer capacity. If you have any questions, or need a DBS check, please see our Safeguarding Officer: Frank Bond.

We need Volunteers! Bright Lights Youth Group needs your HELP! Do you have a skill or talent that you could share with our youth? Do you have 2-6hrs per month that you could share with our youth? Youth work comes with its own special reward, as you will be helping to ensure that our youth enjoy a safe, positive, and diverse space to thrive and grow together. Working together as a team, we can make things happen! All volunteers will need to go through our DBS process. For further information please ask your Youth Volunteers Garth and/or Julie Congratulations to our gardening team! St. Joseph's Catholic Church received 1st place in the Colwyn in Bloom Contest! Thank you to all who helped to make this church garden bloom!

BrightLights Youth Group is restarting on the 28th October 6.30pm-9pm at St. Joseph's Community Centre for an All Souls Day Party. Please bring with a PUMPKIN and a picture of a loved one who has moved on to Heaven (Optional) and your FAMILY! This is a whole parish & family event. Everyone is welcome to join in with the fun! There will be hotdogs, hot chocolate, pumpkin soup, cakes and soft drinks available on the night. A suggested donation of £1.50 per child will be gratefully received. Children under 8 years old need to be accompanied by an adult at all times during this party. Parents/guardians are also advised to stay on the night during this event.

BrightLights Youth Group will resume their normal sessions thereafter on the 2nd and 4th Friday of the month. For ages between 7-15year olds. Please view the website or information flyer for further details. We look forward to welcoming you all back!
